Tact and tact are the right and left bowers of this suave administration.

Even the people who visit Mr.
Lind catch the habit of holding quaker meetings.

A woman knows her new hat isn't becoming to her because her dearest enemy tells her it is.

For earache, toothache, pains, burns, soaks, sore throat try Dr.
Thomas' Emetic Oil, a splendid remedy for emergencies.

If Congress will be good and attend strictly to business, it can have a holiday to enjoy the Fourth of July.

Speaking of interlocking directories, can't a "finer" continue to be an officer in nine lodges at once?

The "Tango" has at last succeeded in kicking our old fashioned corset model clear out of existence.

The trouble with a self-made man is that he always wants to give you specifications and details of the making.

Most disfiguring skin eruption, serofus, pimples, rashes, etc., are due to impure blood. Burdock Blood Gitters as a cleansing blood tonic, is well recommended. $1.00 at all stores, adv

Wisconsin's eugenics law proved unconstitutional for human beings and unnecessary for scraps.

If they are going to "evangelize" South Carolina politicians, the missionaries can begin with the Governor.

It may become necessary to unscrub all those cities that are seeking the New Government regional reserve bank.

Don't You Believe It.

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured, don't you believe it? Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have cured others—why not you. Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by all dealers.

The Estilo Blado has the idea; it wants a sodium farm 160 acres.
Even a small crop could not be "short."

"Solomon did many foolish things for a wise man," says a contemporary. Referring to his collection of wives?

When you see a woman wearing a clinging gown it's a sign that she is willing to admit she has a good figure.

An Ohio doctor says heavy underclothing makes the nose red, but it is more likely the inner filing than the underclothing.

Iitching pills prove so profanity but profanity won't remove them. Dan's Ointment is recommended for itching, bleeding or protruding piles. $1.00 at any drug store.

Goethals for Governor of the Canal Zone and Gorgas for Surgeon General is a good ticket for Panama.

A writer in a Birmingham paper assures the world that often "a pair of patched trousers covers an honest heart." Queer trouser pattern, of queer anatomy they must have down in Alabama.

Colds, constipation and headache are three common afflictions, and relieving the constipation helps the cold and stops the headache. Use Foley's Kidney Tablets because they are very prompt and thoroughly curing, with absolutely no unpleasant effects. A whole bottle full for 25 cents. Sold by R. W. Lanning.

Mexican Crisis Approaching.

The most sensational thing that has happened in Washington for many weeks was the lifting by President Wilson of the Embargo on arms and ammunition exported into Mexico. This removes a handicap from the insurgents or Constitutionalists lead by Carranza against the Huerta dictator Government. Heretofore the insurgents have been unable to obtain arms and ammunition from this country and with the lifting of this embargo they will now be abundantly equipped and in a few weeks it is believed that they will smoke the usurper out. This is greatly to be desired because the patriotic people of Mexico are back of Carranza and are anxious to see him drive the bloody monster Huerta, from the Presidential office.

Grown-Ups

That's Foley's Honey and Tar Compound.
It has the confidence of your druggist, who knows it will give you satisfaction. W. W. Nessmith, States-boro, Ga., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in my family and have sold it in my store and it never fails to cure." Refuse a substitute. Sold by R. W. Lanning

Mr. Envoy Lind has managed to preserve a remarkable amount of Mexican silence without being called a sphinx.

President Wilson seems determined to leave the progressive party with nothing much to do but endorse his wise acts.

Buying To Save Money

Buying Foley's Honey and Tar Compound saves money because just a few doses stops the cough and cold and one bottle last a long time. It quickly heals raw and inflamed surfaces, stops tickling throat, harsh rasping coughs, croak, hoarseness, breath and la grippe coughs. Sold by R. W. Lanning

Philadelphia is a wonderfully prosperous community. The mint coined $2,000,000 more last year than it did the year before.

Young Pierpont Morgan evidently thinks that $50,000,000 at collection his father left him would look much better in hard cash.

Backache—Rheumatism Vanish Away

Men and women having backache, rheumatism, stiff and swollen joints are honestly glad to know that Foley Kidney Pills are successful everywhere in driving out these ills. That is because Foley Kidney Pills are a true medicine and quickly effective in all diseases that result from weak in-tive kidneys and urinary irregularities.

Methodist Ministers Recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes:

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my friends as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effective and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. For sale by all dealers.

In talking matters over with the Crown Prince, the Kaiser will no doubt remember that he himself was once considered a rather impudent young man.

problems; while he waits further news from Mexico City the President is running a little short of work.

Tiger skins are the latest fad

The Best Cough Medicine.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hanes, of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent." For sale

"The Log House in Misso."

When I think, dear heart, of you and that old log house in Misso, And the miles running all around the place,
There's a horrid great big knot, gets stuck In the middle of the log,
And the tears just will go streaking down my face.

Oh, it's true I ceased that mind, and never thought of the great God but Would think about that always broke her pen.
And I crossed the festive chug with his hand, it's all right, but that's what But this is now, you see, dear heart, and that was then.

Course those hens just would break out, and old Sally with her shanty Would have to be the feathers so Dasey left her field.
Then I'd hunt her in the heat, till sweat got to the seat of my pants, Or my pants, if I sat my gapping son.

We had troubles, it's true, half we planted never grew...

Half the time died and the hens went on strata.

But there were pleasures with the rest and tonight I will be blessed.

If I didn't know I had never started on this bike."

I had worries by the score, bout the time and about the time.

And we had just how long the job would last.

But the point is this, 'twas "home" and no one else had it from me.

It's not that fondly of this portion of the past.

Yes, that horrid old log shack, with the garden at the back.

Where the grapevines on the shady arbor grow.

Seems to me I sit here in a spot, old girl, most dear.

And the memories it brings back are all of

I can see you as with song you would work the whole day long.

With a loving, happy smile upon your face,

At the many daily tasks that a housewife does, and she does them well.

And that go make a home of any place.

I can see the fireflies sit, in the evening as we sit.

On the old porch and hear the crickets cheer.

And with tear-dimmed eyes that blink, see that room of white and pink.

Whereupon we put the kiddies down to sleep.

Oh, this North is cold and drear—all the more as you're not here.

And my thoughts go straying back to

I am homesick, lonely, blue—meowing, longing, dear for you.

And to think, with my lip upon your mouth,

Ab, if I could only slip to that moonlit and go floating down to old Ste. Genevieve.

And there find the kids and you, in that log

I am very sure I never would leave.

Oh, my girl, my wife, my love, surely, surely from above.

Someday, somehow and in some happier time will come that great reward we have both been working toward.

To be together—two plus two, and all the time.

vs. Simonne Smith, Defendant

Now at this day comes plaintiff, by his agent and attorney, before the undersigned Judge of the Circuit Court of Ste. Genevieve County, and gives his petition and affidavit setting forth

It is further ordered that a copy thereof be published once a week in the FAIR PLAY, a newspaper published in the County of Ste. Genevieve, Mo., and
